Welcome Daddy & Mummy Ashaolu

The Pastorate, Leaders and entire congregation of RCCG Faith Chapel, Orleans, ON welcomes our dear Daddy and Mummy Johnson T. Ashaolu to Ottawa, ON-3 zone and to Faith Chapel, Orleans. It is our earnest prayer that the Most High will use you greatly to bless God's people all over the land IJMN.

Welcome to the Season of Overflow - Ps 23:5, Luke 5:1-11

Our God is a God of times and seasons. It's another anniversary celebration time, the eight one for that matter. What shall we say unto the Lord? All we want to say is thank you Lord. Thank God for the humble beginning at Bob MacQuarrie Recreation Complex, through 2586 St Joseph Blvd, and then to Quality Inn, to Queenwood Heights Community Center and finally here we are at 2181 St Joseph Blvd. Through it all, we have witnessed the faithfulness of Jehovah.

His presence has always been mighty in all our meetings, distributing blessings and transforming lives. I am particularly grateful to God for making us a church without walls. This ministry goes beyond our current location with great testimonies of answered prayers coming from many of our spiritual children outside Orleans-Ottawa as well. The Lord truly has prepared a table before us in the presence of our enemies, and not only will our anointing overflow; it shall perpetually be fresh in Jesus' Mighty Name.

Three things I however want us all to pay attention to from Peter's experience of overflow in Luke chapter 5 are as follows:

1. Do not joke with any word of God sent to you this season:

The Lord will send His word to you (Ps 107:20, Heb 4:12) in diverse ways this season. You must act on every instruction from the Lord argue like Peter in Luk 5:5. Your response should be "God said it, I believe it and that settles it".

2. Be at the right place at the right time, Gen 26:1-13.

Thank God that Peter was by the Lake of Gennesaret at the time that the Lord was going to preach there. In today's context, it is equivalent sound doctrine at the right time. The Lord Jesus has committed the responsibility for teaching sound doctrines into the hands of vessels He is using today. So, make yourself available for bible studies, Sunday School, etc. These are meetings where you can be exposed to deep teachings.

3. Be totally committed to the Lord.

For me the entire story was the Lord teaching the disciples on commitment. The experience of overflow catch of fishes was a means to the end. The end was the Lord's call to them to become "Fishers of Men" like Him. Jesus said to the disciples in Luk 5:10-11: "henceforth thou shall catch men. And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed Him". This is a call to total commitment. Remember that commitment goes with sacrifice which was why the Lord first requested Peter's boat. When you are committed to a course, you will be willing to sacrifice for that course. How committed are you to this race?

May the Almighty God grant all your heart desires according to His will during this celebration. May your cups truly run over, thereby making you a blessing to this generation.

The Lord bless you! Welcome to the season of overflow!

Pst. Michael Oladejo

1. "Life is wasted if we do not grasp the glory of the cross, cherish it for the treasure that it is, and cleave to it as the highest price of every pleasure and the deepest comfort in every pain. What was once foolishness to us—a crucified God—must become our wisdom and our power and our only boast in this world." – John Piper

2. "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us"- Augustine

3. "God never said that the journey would be easy, but He did say that the arrival would be worthwhile." – Max Lucado

THE OVERFLOW

Text: Psalm 23 v 5

"Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over" (OVERFLOW). This is the demonstration of God's generosity to mankind. My cup overflow means my cup is completely full and overflowing. In this passage, we can see that God is a host, displaying hospitality to man.

What is Overflow?

Overflow can be defined as having God's abundance in your life. In Gen. 1 v 28 God said unto them "be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth".

God's purpose for your life is to be BIG, God wants you and I to overflow in our spiritual lives, in our families, in our academic and diverse careers, in our health and in our finances etc. God said in 3rd John 1 v 2 "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth".

Brethren, there are three major assignments of the devil in the world; to steal, to kill, and to destroy, but our Lord Jesus has come that we might have life, and that we might have it more abundantly (Overflow), John 10:10.

The thoughts of God towards all His children from the foundation of the earth is of peace, and not of evil to give His children an expected end, Jer 29:11. But for you to experience overflow, there are certain conditions you must meet.

CONDITIONS TO EXPERIENCE GOD'S OVERFLOW

1. You must be a child of God through Jesus Christ. John 3 v 16
2. You must be obedient to God's commandment. Isa 1 v 19.
3. You must be prayerful to claim God's promises for your life. 1 Thes. 5 v 17
4. You must study and always meditate on the word of God. Jos. 1 v 8

5. You must live a life of thanksgiving at all time. Ps 69 v 30.

6. You must have relationship and communion with the Holy Spirit.

7. You must exhibit the fruit of the Spirit. Gal. 5 v 22 & 23.

8. Consistent and generous sowing. 1st Cor. 9 v 6. The level of your sowing determines the level of your overflow harvest.

In conclusion, to experience overflow, you must be a Christian that think BIG with a large heart. Prov. 23 v 7(a) says for as he thinketh in his heart, so is he; Therefore, rather than to pray for God to bless you, pray to God to make you a channel of blessing to others.

Rather than to pray for God to heal you, pray for His healing power to flow through you to others.

Rather than to pray for job, pray to God to make you employer of labor. God Bless you all in Jesus name.

Enjoy the season of overflow

~ LOVE ~

The supremacy of love to brethren can best be gleaned by drawing comparison from the Love that radiates among physical family. For example, we show love over and over again even when such family members fail us. We go ahead to demonstrate love because we cannot just throw them away. They are our flesh and blood.

On the other hand, when we show love to a stranger and he does not appreciate it, we simply walk away claiming that we have done our best. Even if such stranger receives and accepts our kind gestures, we believe that there is a limit to which we can go because we feel we are not under any obligation to bear all burdens.

The scripture, 1 peter 3:8 "Finally, all of you, be like-minded, be sympathetic, love one another, be compassionate and humble", reveals another level of love as Christians. We are admonished to show or demonstrate love to one another whether he/she be your blood relations or a dear friend.

1Jn 4 vs 7-10 says "let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

As Christians, Love is so powerful that nothing can separate us from it. On this basis of the Love of God and of Christ for us "We can and must Love". Love is the new commandment that Christ gave and the summary of all the commandments. God wants us to extend this love to him, to our neighbors and even to our enemies. It is the first and the highest of all Christian virtues, even greater than the Faith and Hope (1 Cor.13:13) and the key test of Christian discipleship. Love's central nature is selflessness even to the point of self-sacrifice, for that is how Christ loves us.

According to Pastor Michael Oladejo he said, "The bedrock of the Christian Faith is Love". In other words, any believer that lacks that virtue of love in him or her is wasting his or her time in the church. No wonder the Holy book recorded no "Fruits" of the Spirit but "Fruit" of the spirit (Gal.5:22). Thus, of all the nine fruit of the spirit, the connective fruit is Love. In other words. Love, all other fruit of the spirit is embedded in you. As there is no Joy, Peace, Patience, longsuffering, Gentleness, Goodness, Faithfulness, meekness and temperance if the believer lacks Love.

As it is stated in the legal parlance "that one cannot put something on nothing and expect that thing to stand....it will definitely collapse" (Per Lord Denning, U.A.C vs. MCFYO).

Continuation...

Love is the greatest of all Christian Virtues (1 Cor 13:13). In the Thirteenth Chapter of the first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians, Apostle Paul took quality time to describe the characteristics of genuine Love. In 1 Peter 4:7-11, we saw a very important aspect of Love, "Love shall cover multitude of sin". Note the word "multitude", genuine Love will not cover faults today only to expose it tomorrow in the name of provocation or revenge.

This does not mean that Love condones or compromises with sins. It simply means that Love does not take advantage of people's mistakes to undo them and bring them to reproach. But in our today's church, not only do we expose the mistakes of the brethren just to run them down, some brethren will even go to the extent of setting a stumbling block for others in order to bring them down. Where faults and mistakes are difficult to find, some brethren will resort to backbiting and blackmail. All of these goes to show that the Love of God is not spread abroad in their hearts.

The Love of God is supreme, and it is only those that genuinely Love that knows Him and belong to Him. In the body of Christ Love is not optional. We are to love as we are being loved by Christ. Where there is genuine Love, fault-finding, bitterness and rancour are not permissive to operate. Genuine Love accepts people because God has accepted them, not because they are perfect or flawless. Finally, in the household of Faith, we have been bought by the blood of Lamb. We belong to the household of faith.

Hence, brethren in the Lord, loving as Brethren simply means totally accepting the virtues and grace that is in one another and giving encouragement when necessary. It means we have the responsibility to stand in for one another until the work is done. Loving as Christians means tolerating one another in the spirit of Christian Love not taking advantage of the weak.

When we love as Christians, Forgiveness will flow freely in our midst. Malice and envy will be far from us.

We rejoice with those that are rejoicing and mourn with those who are mourning. Loving as brethren means seeing the church as Christ see us and accepting every member in a blood covenant of fellowship and tender loving care.

What is "The Overflow"

The theme at Faith Chapel (Orleans) – for the month of July – is Overflow. The accompanying scripture, (Psalms 23:5), is a fantastic metaphor for the relationship that Christians should have with the Holy Spirit: we are vessels and the Holy Spirit is the substance within which "runneth over".

For most, the phrase outpouring of the power of the Holy Spirit evokes images of 'mighty' miracles and healings and prophecies (let us call them traditional gifts) performed by pastors, ministers, etc., i.e., the usual suspects. However, this is not the only way that the power of the Holy Spirit manifests. Indeed, it is not even the most common way in which this manifestation occurs.

Many people are discouraged that they are not among the ranks of those who perform these extraordinary feats, but at these times, one must remember what the bible says in 2 Corinthians 12: 4-10. It discusses the incredible diversity that exists in the gifts bestowed upon the people of God through the Holy Spirit. Every one of these gifts from the Spirit is precious and should be treated as such; all being used equally for the edification of the church.

Many of those who are discouraged are the very same who speak in tongues or could out-dance King David or whose song could be mistaken for that of the angels, and yet the colossal amount of emphasis placed upon the traditional gifts blinds them to the magnificence of God flowing through them.

We must all remember to find the gifts bestowed upon us by the Almighty, looking within for our way of serving Him, of edifying His Kingdom, and of gathering and leading as many souls as possible to salvation in Jesus Christ.

Moreover, the Bible tell us that the realm of the spirit controls that of the physical, therefore if an individual is full of the Holy Spirit, they are unstoppable in the world. We must never forget that the plans that the Lord has for us are always positive (He says so in Jeremiah 29:11) and thus the gifts that we have gained through the infilling of the Holy Spirit will always work in our favour. In other words, there is literally no downside to using your gifts to serve the Lord. Once a child of God is overflowing with the Holy Spirit, they are fully primed for success; fear should be nothing but a distant memory, something to be forgotten.

To conclude, an overflow of the Holy Spirit is the greatest advantage a person can have. It guarantees prosperity in every aspect of life, gives unlimited potential, and bestows spectacular gifts upon the individual. This, in turn, allows the person win souls to Christ, through both their ministry and their lifestyle, thereby securing themselves crown and a place with Jesus behind the Pearly Gates. With all that said, only one question remains unanswered: What are you waiting for?

Brokenness doesn't mean the SUN won't shine again: Today you are a land of DUST but very soon you would be a land of GOLD - By Pastor Ebun Oladejo

TESTIMONY

I'm sharing this testimony to magnify the name of the Lord and to show forth His praises and power for answering the prayers of His servants, Pastor/Pastor Mrs. Oladejo. It happened in May 2018 that my daughter, Victoria had a bike accident that got her two fractured bones (tibia and fibula) of the lower limbs of right leg.

When she was taken to the hospital, the doctors said that from what they see, she may have to go for a surgery to have the two bones properly set, but for the meantime, to relieve her of pains they will set it and cast it pending our next appointment for the surgery option. I wasn't happy that she may still go through a surgery that could possibly leave her with a permanent scar on her leg.

That same week, God's servants came around, prayed for her healings and the very same night, my daughter had a dream. In that dream she saw her injured leg looking red and the healthy leg looking green. Suddenly, a very big hand came over the injured(red) leg and it became green as the healthy leg.

At that instance, in the same dream she saw herself throwing away crutches giving her from the hospital, and she found herself jumping and jubilating that she is healed. As she was narrating the dream to me the following day, she said that she knew she is healed because red means bad and green means good(alive) and so God has made both legs good.

I told her that she's right and that God has visited her through his servant's prayers. I also at that moment had this peace and conviction, fully persuaded that she won't go for a surgery as earlier speculated by the doctors. On our appointed day, less than three weeks after the accident, X-ray result showed that the bones are properly set. The doctor said that was perfect and there won't be a need for a surgery. It's been two weeks since she dropped the crutches to God's faithfulness and glory.

TESTIMONY OF FAITHFULNESS OF GOD

Praise God. My testimony is to the glory of God . I had a successful interview with a company in the month of June this year. The hiring manager told me during the negotiation that I will always be on duty on Saturday and Sunday, I told her that I have dedicated my Sunday for serving my God, she simply told me I lost the job and I left. A week after, the Manager called me to resume work and I have my Sunday to serve my God.

Glory be to God.

TESTIMONY OF OVERFLOW

For a long time, I have been waiting and trusting God for certain finance. I did everything that was needed to be done but it seemed like it was taking a long time. Suddenly last Friday after so many months of waiting, I received an email.

The money had been deposited to my account. The God of Overflow was not done yet. As I sat in church during our Friday Bible Study and the man of God, Deacon Adebayo preached on the conditions for overflow and one of the things he mentioned was being a faithful giver and obedience, I connected that in my Spirit. Immediately it was time for offering I took out my phone to get tithe information and there was another money sent to my account.

I praise the God of The Overflow. As God has done for me, he will do much more for you. He is faithful. Don't give up. As you serve him faithfully and in obedience, whether convenient or not, he is bound to bless you. This is your season of Overflow. To God be all the glory.
